1. Student selection

Wentworth Institute ("WIN") upholds the principle that all applicants seeking to enrol are treated fairly and equitably. To ensure this WIN has open, fair, clear and transparent procedures that are based on clearly defined entry criteria for making decisions about the selection of students.

Students will be selected on merit based on the published criteria. WIN will ensure that throughout the process of selection and admission, applicants are treated courteously and expeditiously.

Entry criteria and application procedures are published in WIN's Prospectus and on WIN's website for the information of persons seeking to enrol with WIN.

2. Relationship to the Higher Education Support Act 2003

WIN is an approved FEE-HELP provider, WIN undertakes to observe the Higher Education Support Act 2003 having open, fair and transparent procedures that are based on merit for making decisions about:

   a) the selection, from among persons who seek to enrol with WIN in a subject of study who are, or would be, entitled to FEE-HELP assistance; and

   b) the treatment of students who are, or would be, entitled to FEE-HELP assistance undertaking a subject of study.

The above undertakings do not prevent WIN taking into account, in making decisions about the selection and treatment of students, educational disadvantages that a particular student has experienced.

The opportunities and benefits of Commonwealth assistance will be made equally available to all eligible students upon enrolment.

3. General admission requirements

Persons seeking to enrol in a higher education course with WIN are required to submit acceptable evidence that they meet the published entry criteria for their chosen course.

To satisfy the general entrance requirements for admission to a vocational diploma pathway leading to an undergraduate degree course, applicants must meet at least one of the following entry requirements:

- Completion of an Australian Senior Secondary Certificate of Education, or its equivalent, at an appropriate level.

  For example:

A student shall be deemed to be no longer enrolled in a course if the student has been excluded on academic or disciplinary grounds.

9. Appeals

An applicant may appeal against a decision to refuse admission to a course. Applicants who wish to appeal a decision made under this policy must do so within ten working days of receiving notification of the admission decision. The grounds for appeal are that the decision is inconsistent with this policy. Appeals must be made in writing and lodged with the Dean within ten working days of the applicant receiving written notification of the decision to refuse their application. The Dean will normally respond in writing to the appeal within twenty working days and may confirm or vary the decision. All decisions made by the Dean will be reviewed by the Teaching and Learning Committee.

If an applicant remains dissatisfied with the outcome of their appeal against a decision to refuse admission to a course they may utilise WIN’s grievance handling procedures which enables prospective students to lodge grievances of a non-academic nature.
